

VISIT THE SOUTH OF FRANCE WITH TEXAS WINE FANS

Join This is Texas Wine Podcast creator Shelly Wilfong on this extraordinary tour to the magical South of France in April 2024.

HIGHLIGHTS

- 2 days in Provence to learn more about rosé from producers with Texas roots.
- 3 days in the Southern Rhône and Châteauneuf-du-Pape to explore the homeland of many grapes planted in Texas.
- 2 days in Languedoc-Roussillon, one of France's most interesting, evolving wine regions, including a visit to Picpoul de Pinet.
- 2 days in Bordeaux, visiting châteaux of the Right Bank and Left Bank.
- Excursion to Cognac for a distillery tour and visit to the T.V. Munson plaque.

CULTURE

- A tour of Marseille, France's oldest and most diverse city.
- Visits to the Van Gogh Bridge, the Roman Amphitheatre of Arles, and the Roman Aqueduct of Pont Du Gard.
- A tour of Fontfroide Abbey and gardens, one of southern France's most picturesque sites.
- Tour of Cité Du Vin, Bordeaux's grand wine museum.

WINE

- Behind-the-scenes access and in-depth tastings at 14 wineries
- Presentation at the Vine and Wine Institute in Montpellier
- Sensory Tour at the Cité Du Vin in Bordeaux

FOOD

- Choice restaurant selections including fine dining and local favorites.
- Wine accompanies meals, of course!

HOTELS

Superior class lodging in central locations.

DATE

Wednesday, April 3rd through Sunday, April 14th, 2024

COSTS

6950 USD per person, with maximum of 10 travelers on the tour.
INCLUDES all food, hotels, and transportation in France.
EXCLUDES airfare and personal expenses such as souvenirs.

For more info, email Pablo (pablo@gourmettours.biz) or Shelly (texaswinepod@gmail.com)